Springfield, Ohio, Nov. 4.—With a gleam of satisfaction twinkling in his eye, Governor Judson Harmon last night bagged one of the "flying squadrons" of cabinet ministers who have come into Ohio to tell the citizens here how to vote.

His trophy was Secretary Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, who was one of his successors as attorney general.

In his address at Columbus Secretary Knox made some reference to the fact that Governor Harmon had, while a member of President Cleveland's cabinet, recommended some charges in the Sherman anti-trust act. Possibly to disparage him, Secretary Knox invited the audience to remember that the Republican administration coming thereafter had successfully enforced the law without amendments.

This stumble, for it can be considered as nothing else, opened the way for the governor to recall in turn that he was the first attorney general to enforce the anti-trust act after his Republican predecessors had failed to do so. He did it, too, without any amendments, and it was the precedents that he established that acted as guide posts to those who came after him.

But there was no twinkle in his eye when he cited the fact that, despite the example he set the Republicans, there had been no real enforcement of the law against the giant corporations, who were still twirling their fingers at the government while they continued to loot the consumers and patrons.

There was a reason. It was Secretary Knox who, when appointed as attorney general, said that he did not intend to "run amuck among the lawbreakers." The record was proof that he had kept his word.

The gigantic trusts were "slapped on the wrist," so to speak, being let off with fines that were relatively trivial, and were paid simply through increasing the prices of their products to the consumer. Strong at Washington, they had prevented the amendment of the law so as to make individuals and not the corporations suffer. Individuals could be put in jail, but corporations could not.

Firing back at Secretary Knox the governor demanded to know why it was that he was not in Pennsylvania, where there was an uprising against the corrupt Republican machine.

His own party press was deploring the fact that although invited, he had not responded to the call for duty in the home guards. Nor had he journeyed into Indiana, where Roosevelt had gone to help out the sorely beset Senator Albert J. Beveridge.

This last charge applied as well to the other possessors of portfolios. All of them were out in Ohio supporting the candidate of the man whom their chief, President Taft, had denounced at Akron as unfit for leadership and the foe of good, honest government.

This is what he said in the city hall here last night concerning Secretary Knox's criticism of his request for a strengthening of the Sherman law.

"Secretary Knox, one of the 'visiting statesmen,' who have come out to tell the people of Ohio how to vote, referred last night to my statement while attorney general."

"Why did Mr. Knox pass through his home state with his hand on his mouth when the good citizens there are waging a mighty battle for honest government, to come here and oppose the candidates who, whatever their other shortcomings, stand for honest government in Ohio? And why, if his mighty sword could not be restrained from leaping from its scabbard, is it not flourished for Beveridge in Indiana instead of for Dick and Harding here?"

It was at Urbana yesterday afternoon, addressing the largest indoor political meeting ever held in that city, that he fired the first shot at the "Flying Squadron." His audience was made up largely of farmers, and there were a large number of Republicans out to hear him. To them he said upon this general topic:

"The president is overrunning the state with members of his cabinet, who are instructed to plead for the approval of his administration by my defeat."

"Has he forgotten his speech at Akron denouncing the tyranny and corruption of the Cox machine and declaring his purpose to vote against the ticket if presented?"

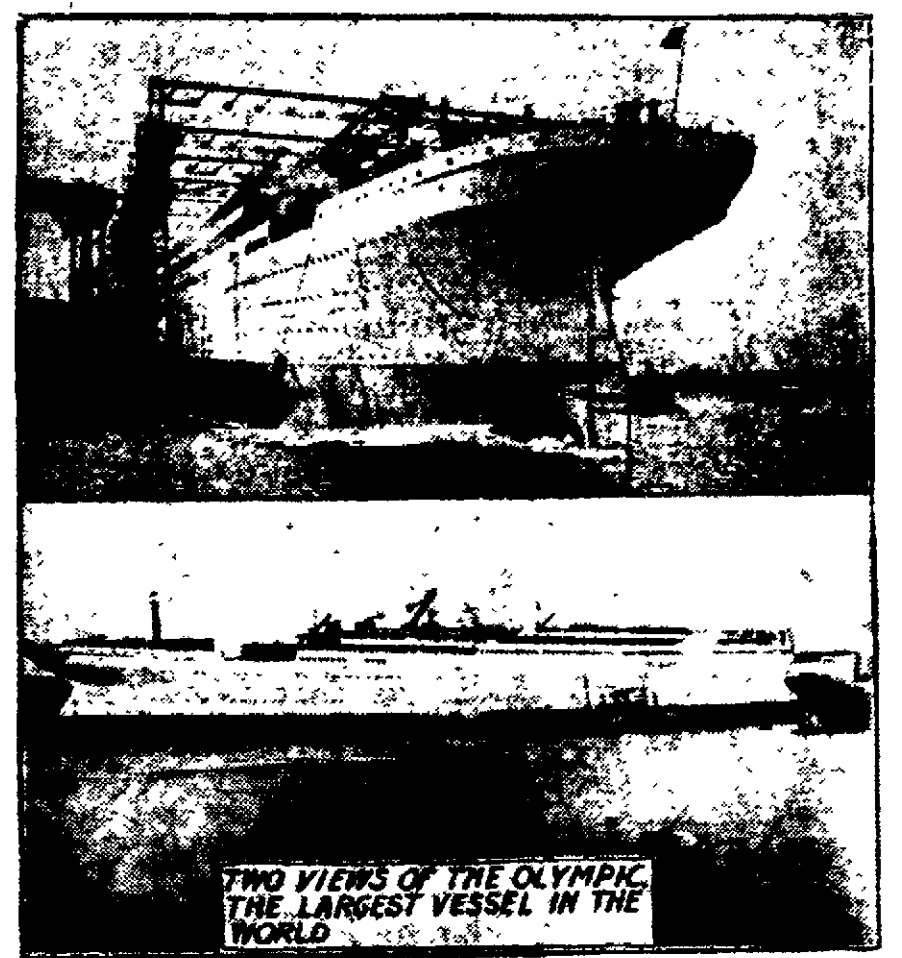

"If not, how could the election of Harding be an approval of Taft, when Harding was nominated by Cox, finds in Cox his chief reliance in the campaign, and bows to Cox as 'Big, Manly, Modest,' as 'A man of ability, who is wise in counsel, trusted in advice, just in judgment,' and as one who 'has elevated his head high above the storm of calumny and abuse and won his way to a trusted place in the party?'"

"If the president thinks the election as governor of a man so nominated, so supported and so infatuated with low ideals of manhood and civic morals, then how have the mighty fallen!"

ATTY. GEN. DENMAN IS NOT PUSHING CANAL CHARGES

Columbus, Nov. 4.—Chief Engineer James R. Marker wanted the canal graft probbers to take up, on Thursday, investigation of a charge of alleged faulty construction of the canal locks and other canal work, but Attorney General Denman said that he did not think this matter should be gone into at this time, but expressed a willingness to take this up after the other charges had been disposed of.

Marker said that he wanted to show that the faulty construction was not due to a lack of knowledge of cement and gravel work on the part of the supervising engineers and contractors, but to a violation of the specifications of the contracts for improvements. He says that he can show mud was used when cement and gravel should have been used, and that walls were much smaller in some cases than provided for by contract.

General Denman said that the report of former Chief Engineer Perkins frankly stated that considerable work was defective, but excused this on account of the limited knowledge obtaining them regarding cement work, which was then just coming into use. Mr. Denman said that it was his understanding that no new charges were to be pressed until after those first filed by Mr. Marker had been investigated.

Engineer Marker said that he did not understand that there was any agreement to that effect. General Denman said that he would be glad to go into all this after the present hearing had been concluded, and this ended the matter for the present.

Columbus, Nov. 4.—Evidence tending to show that Superintendent Hatch bought stone at the administrator's sale of the estate of John Zimmerman for 9 to 11 cents a ton, and sold it to the state later under the name of John Zimmerman, Jr., at 70 cents a ton, was introduced today in the canal probe. The state payroll shows that as late as last August the state allowed a bill from John Zimmerman for $140 for stone. It is claimed the Cuyahoga county records will show that Hatch bought this stone at the sale of Zimmerman's estate. Romer and Denman had another squabble today over testimony, each charging the other with attempting to play politics. The sales record of the Akron storage and contracting company were introduced today to contradict the testimony of Contractor Lukens that he bought the cement on the N. & O. job from them. No record of such a sale could be found.

ENGLISH INVASION OF PERSIA OCCURS AND BATTLE RESULTS

Teheran, Persia, Nov. 4.—The English invasion of Persia has begun with a pitched battle, in which reports say the commander and several sailors of the British cruiser Venerable were wounded. Serious trouble, even to the point of involving Russia, France and Germany, is expected to follow.

The reports say the Venerable landed a force of 400 men, several days ago at Lengath, on the Persian Gulf. They were landed today and it is said they were attacked by Persians, a pitched battle ensuing. No definite reports of the number of dead nor who won the fight have been received. The Persians regard England's move as the first step in an attempted partition of their country between Russia and England, and have secretly appealed to Germany and France for protection.

PEACE EFFORTS WERE BLOCKED

New York, Nov. 4.—A mass meeting of striking expressmen at the docks this afternoon probably demanded a general strike. All yesterday's efforts for peace were blocked by the refusal of the companies to arbitrate the recognition of the union. The strikers today demand the arrest of all strike breakers under old ordinance, calling all drivers must be licensed.

The 250 employees of White's express company, a small concern, continued to work today, the company having no other demand.

That the international teamsters union was preparing to call a strike all over the country was indicated today by President Daniel J. Tobin of the teamsters international, who arrived from Boston to superintend the local strike. He said, however, that he came in the interest of peace. The first fatality resulting from the strike occurred today when J. C. Weiner died from wounds inflicted by his sympathizers, who mistook him for an armed express guard on last Monday night.

As regards weather, our country will never be beaten by a foreign power.

ROOSEVELT AT DAVENPORT, IA.

In a speech to 5,000 people he said that after the election in the Republican party as a result of the tariff was even the party would be forced to be unindividually in favor of the progressive side. He warmly endorsed G. Fair's progressive views. The Colonel received a rousing cheer when he lambasted Tammany and Wall Street. He said he was glad to hear them say that they would not be a party to the holding.

Beira, Nov. 4.—The Czar of Russia is making a brief visit to King William today. A few thousand troops are keeping guard against assassins. Owing to the not over friendly relations existing between Russia and Germany the meeting is important as a better understanding is expected to result from it.

NEBRASKA RANCHMEN INDICTED

Drove Homesteaders From Land at Point of Guns

PRES. TAFT INTERESTED

By Letter of One of the Victims Causes the Investigation by Special Jury.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Indictments have been returned by the federal grand jury against nine ranchmen of western Nebraska. The indictments charge conspiracy to drive from their claims, at the point of guns, homesteaders who took quarter sections of semi-arid land under the Kinkaid homestead law, by the defendants.

Those indicted are Perry S. Yeast of Hyannis, Neb.; his son, Frank W. Yeast; Leslie E. Ballinger, M. C. Hubbell, Emil Anderson, Willmot Z. Emerson, Harry Sutton, Boone B. Hawthorne and Dr. Harry H. Huff.

Dr. Huff, a prominent physician, and Sutton, county attorney of Garden county, are members of the insanity board. Yeast, one of the largest ranchers in the state, was convicted two years ago of fraudulently securing title to homestead land and paid a fine and served a jail sentence.

There are four counts in the indictments and specific overt acts mentioned indicate an unusual frontier condition.

According to the charges made in the indictment, Yeast and his associates carried their efforts so far as to secure the incarceration in the insane asylum at Hastings, Neb., of one of their alleged victims.

When the Kinkaid homestead law was passed, many persons went to Grant, Banner, Garden, Cherry and other western Nebraska counties and looked up quarter sections. The land is in the Sand Hills country, but it contains many fertile valleys. Several big ranches, among them Yeast and his associates, have heretofore depended on this valley land for their hay for winter feeding, and the setting of homesteaders was resented.

The indictment charges that a band of about 30 persons, headed by Yeast, went to the homes of many of these homesteaders, among them Cashier J. Davasher, George Carpenter, Golba D. Graves and Henry S. Coulson, and by intimidation and threats of taking their lives and those of their families, forced them to leave their claims.

The specific case of Davasher is mentioned in detail. It is charged that Yeast and the other defendants accompanied by a band of cowboys, visited Davasher's home and, after threatening himself and family with death if they did not leave the country, destroyed his home, broke up his machinery, cut his harness to pieces and in other ways mistreated him. Later, according to the indictment, Yeast conspired with members of the county insanity board and secured Davasher's incarceration in an asylum. This latter act, according to the indictment, was committed in a high-handed manner. The insanity commissioners, it is alleged, went through a mock examination, declared Davasher insane, and issued a warrant from his arrest.

This was served on the spot and within an hour he was rushed off to the asylum without being permitted to have the advice of counsel. Davasher's case was brought to the attention of the superintendent of the institution, who conducted an examination into the case. He at once declared Davasher was not insane and the latter was released by habeas corpus proceedings.

According to an official of the interior department, the present indictment covers one of the most remarkable attempts at land grabbing recently brought to the attention of the department. A letter written by one of the victims to President Taft is said to have caused the investigation which resulted in indictments being returned. A special grand jury was summoned to consider the evidence.

Many thousands of acres of grazing land are contained in the tracts in question.

Dark Fruit Cake. One pound dried peaches, one pound prunes, washed and soaked twelve hours, then dried, stoned and both fruits cut fine. Cream a half pound of butter, add one pound of sugar, five beaten eggs, the spices, add gradually three cupfuls of sifted pastry flour, the juice and grated rind of two oranges, a half teaspoonful of cloves, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, a half teaspoonful of salt, a half pound of chopped nuts, the fruit lightly dusted with flour and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake it in a moderate oven for about three hours.

Omelet Celestine. Half a dozen stale macaroons finely crumbled will be needed for omelet celestine. Add to these one tablespoonful of thick whipped cream and three tablespoonfuls of apple or any mildly acid jelly. Beat six eggs without separating, add one tablespoonful of warm water and one teaspoonful of powdered sugar. Into a very hot pan drop one teaspoonful of butter and tilt until the bottom is evenly greased. Pour in the eggs and shake and stir with a spatula. When the omelet is ready to fold pour the cake mixture in the center, fold over and turn out on a hot dish. Dredge with a little powdered sugar and brown quickly by holding close to it a clean red hot shovel or stove lid. Send quickly to the table, passing with it a bowl of whipped cream.

HEART and HOME TALKS by Barbara Boyd

Little Problems of The Home.

A Letter from the Sister of Boys.

A GIRL writes that she has three brothers, and that they make much confusion and noise in the house, running in and out and throwing their things around that she thinks they are a sort of nuisance. She says she does not care for their interests anyway. But something one of them said one day rather cut her, and she wonders if she really ought to try to take more interest in their affairs and be more to them.

Of course, she should. From what she writes, she is probably a quiet, serious girl, and their noise, their football and baseball togetherness around the house, the unceremonious coming and going of their friends annoy her. But she is a very unwise little girl to cut this phase of life out of her life. She needs it, and they need her.

Boys in many a home are looked upon by the feminine members of the family as sort of a nuisance. Their noise, their rough ways are a constant source of irritation. They are scolded and nagged to be quiet, to get their things away, not to talk so loud, not to slam the doors.

That most boys should be quieter and more orderly is true, but this is the way to get them to be so. If a sister would enter into their measures, get a sympathetic approach ation of their view of life, make things pleasant for them in the home, they would be much more apt to do what the sister wanted. A sister can do much to make a brother's home life happy. She is young and sees the world as he does with youthful eyes, and if she would make it easy for him to entertain his friends at home, help him to make it pleasant for them, a bond would be established between the two that would do much to enrich all their life.

And many a girl needs just what a brother can bring into her life. The writer of this letter evidently needs it. It does a girl good to get the boyish outlook on the world. It broadens her, particularly a girl who is inclined to withdraw into herself. It does a quiet, studious girl good to become interested in a boy's world of outdoors and sports. Each needs the other; each can help the other. A girl with brothers ought to be thankful for what they can bring into her life. And she in turn should help them to know gentleness, and courtesy, and consideration—qualities that will be of inestimable advantage to them when they go into the real world to make fame and fortune.

Dr. Greene's NERVURA
Nerve Remedy

Insomnia

Shattered nerves are the cause of insomnia. If you cannot sleep nights, beware, for serious danger threatens your health and life. There is no burden so painful, no loss so wasting as the loss of sleep. Down this road have travelled thousands to nervous prostration, insanity and the grave.

Dr. Greene's Nervura restores the nerves to healthful tone and induces sound, healthful, restful sleep, by natural processes. If you wish to sleep again the sweet sleep of childhood and rise refreshed and renewed, begin with Dr. Greene's Nervura at once.

Mr. Henry S. Wetzel, of 25 Warren St., Revere, Mass., says: "I was taken with an attack of nervous prostration. I became very weak and nervous. I could not sleep without taking a sleeping powder. I got so thin and weak that I thought I would never recover. Doctors did me no good. One day my sister brought me a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura. Before I had taken the first bottle I began to sleep well, and that terrible nervousness disappeared. By the time I had taken four bottles I was completely cured and about my former strength. I still take Dr. Greene's Nervura whenever I feel a little out of sorts, and it always does me good."

Dr. Greene's Nervura gives new strength, energy and vigor to man or woman. It purifies the blood and strengthens the nerves. Dr. Greene may be consulted free of charge, either by letter or personally, at his office, 9 West 14th Street, New York City.

There will be an important meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee on Saturday, November 5, at 10 o'clock a. m., and 1 o'clock p. m. It is urgently requested that both the Central Committee and the candidates be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

J. J. HILL, Chairman.
A. BOLLWINE, Secretary.

"I am here to greet Governor Harmon and to express my deep conviction that the people of Ohio are going to honor themselves by re-electing a man who has made the record of governor that he has, rather than a man who boasts of his loyalty to George B. Cox and his unspeakable organization."—Tom L. Johnson at the big tent meeting at Cleveland.

HAVEN'T YOU HAD ENOUGH?

With four of his cabinet officers making stump speeches in Ohio, and Ballinger yet to hear from the Ohio campaign for the Cox-Dick-Harding state ticket winds up after all in a tearful appeal to stand by Taft.

Great fear of Taft's humiliation two years hence overshadows the real importance of this campaign in the election of state officials to look after the state's official business during the next two years.

What a humiliating confession it is. The people of Ohio besieged and besought to elect g. o. p. candidates that they really do not want in state offices on the pretense of supporting a president who is not a candidate in this campaign and will not be a candidate for re-election until 1912.

That is the way stand-paism and graft have grown up together and become strong. They have continuously begged that you "stand by the flag" or "stand by the president," or "stand by this or stand by that while the interests" have flourished on legislation at Washington and men elected to state offices through appeals to party prejudice have built sky-scrapers or become bank presidents by betraying your confidence and dishonoring the party that honored them.

This appeal to elect the Cox-Dick-Harding ticket in Ohio this year to save Taft from humiliation two years from now has about as much sense in it as there would be in an appeal to elect that ticket this year to keep the wheat out of the wheat or prevent the potato crop next year being damaged by potato bugs.

The first concern of all Ohio voters next Tuesday should be whether Governor Harmon's administration shall be continued two years longer with such assistance as can be given him only by electing his entire ticket and a Democratic majority in both branches of the legislature.

The question of who shall be elected president in 1912 is not up for decision this year and cannot be decided until 1912.

Haven't you had enough voting for something you don't want because you want something you must get some other time?

PHIL B. SMYTHE

Phil B. Smythe is the Democratic candidate for the office of Prosecuting Attorney.

Elected to this most important trust by the voters two years ago, he has more than made good and is receiving words of encouragement from Republican and independent voters all over the county.

In filling the functions of the office of Prosecutor he must bring to the discharge of his duties a technical training in the law and should be the equal of any other lawyer in the county as a trial lawyer. He is the advisor of all the other county officers and he should be a lawyer of much experience.

He advises and directs the commissioners, the township trustees and the school boards in their expenditure of the people's money, and also as to the general conduct of their offices.

Hence, it is that if the prosecutor is not up to the standard as a lawyer, the taxpayer may suffer and other county officers be subjected to much embarrassment.

There is much to try the patience of the higher court in the inefficiency and lack of learning of many public prosecutors whose selection is not often based upon wise popular favor. Oftentimes the courts must reject the work of these prosecutors, performed at an enormous public expense, because of their ignorance and lack of learning.

This is a question which affects every person in the county, who desires a fair and impartial application of the criminal law, or who owns property in the county.

It is not a political question, it is a business one. The question with each voter should be, which candidate will make the better prosecutor? Which is the more experienced and skillful in legal work? Which man would you select for advice and counsel, if you were a commissioner or township trustee, or member of a school board?

Which man would you select to manage your own legal affairs? Which one has had the better training and experience to perform these duties skillfully and well? Citizens should vote accordingly.

The Democratic candidate, Mr. Smythe, is recognized as a lawyer of experience and ability. He has had much experience in the trial of law suits, especially in criminal trials, and in the guidance and advice of various boards. He was solicitor of Newark when the new municipal code went into effect, and performed the difficult task of adjusting that law to municipal affairs at a time when there were no precedents for guidance. He has frequently advised and directed various school boards, and boards of township trustees.

Mr. Smythe comes of a family of lawyers, who have practiced law in this county for 74 years.

General Smythe, his grandfather, commenced practice in Licking county in 1834, and continued at the bar for over 60 years. And his father has practiced the profession for over 40 years.

Phil B. Smythe, the junior member of the legal firm of Smythe & Smythe, who are recognized as among the best lawyers in the county, is honest, capable and experienced. The people of Licking county should congratulate themselves, without regard to party, upon the chance of securing such a lawyer to perform their public work. The duties of this office are too important to entrust to inexperienced hands.

That Mr. Smythe will be re-elected is an assured fact. He has made a painstaking official and his prosecution of the criminal cases in the Licking county courts proves that no mistake was made when he was chosen for the office of Prosecutor.

The bold promise made by Warren G. Harding in his stump speech at Cincinnati, that, if elected Governor, he would give George B. Cox a "square deal," is a pill that is hard to swallow by thousands of Republicans. Whether they will do so remains to be seen. Giving Cox a "square deal" means protecting Cox graft. It means nothing else, and intelligent voters know it.

James W. Rutledge has a record for integrity. He is the kind of man that can always be relied upon. The people will make no mistake in electing him county treasurer.

WILL VOTE THIS TIME—HOW?

President Taft is going to Cincinnati to vote next Tuesday. Five years ago he said in a speech at Akron that if he were able to vote that year he would not vote for the ticket of the Cox machine at Cincinnati. How will he vote next Tuesday? The same Cox machine is still running as smoothly as a Corliss engine in the city where President Taft finds it possible to vote this year, and is running this campaign for Harding.

Joseph Brownfield, Democratic candidate for re-election for his second term, has served the tax-payers of Licking county faithfully and well during his first term as county commissioner. His record in the office has won the respect and confidence of the people of the entire county. The county business has been looked after in a very capable and efficient manner by the present board of commissioners. Mr. Brownfield has always been careful, conscientious and has used rare good judgment on all occasions where it demanded the expenditure of the people's money. He should be re-elected by a rousing good majority. He will discharge the duties of the office in the same business like manner that has characterized his first term.

Vote for J. W. Rutledge for County Treasurer. Mr. Rutledge is one of the best business men of the county and will make a number one man in charge of the county money. He is well qualified by long and successful business experience, well and favorably known all over the county and is acceptable to the voters from every standpoint.

The Democrats of Licking county have reason to be proud of the splendid ticket which they are asked to support this year. No better ticket could have been selected and it is a foregone conclusion that it will be triumphantly elected next Tuesday.

PHIL B. SMYTHE.

WHY GRAFTERS WANT TO GET RID OF CREAMER

Why are some people so anxious to get David Staley Creamer out of the State Treasurership?

Well, for one reason, he has put into effect a system of competitive bidding by banks which wish to have deposits of state funds, thus saving to the taxpayers just about $1,000 a week in added interest. This interest formerly went into private pockets, under conditions which might put a few influential politicians behind the bars, if the whole truth can once be thoroughly laid bare.

Treasurer Creamer, together with the Governor, has already bared a great deal of it and are steadily following up the scent for the rest. That is why some people want Creamer defeated, and it is also a good reason why any honest taxpayer, Republican or Democrat, should want him retained.

Again, he has asked the legislature to pass two laws, one making the competitive system of bidding for the use of state funds obligatory, and the other requiring the State Treasurer to report both to the Governor and to the Auditor of State in writing, at the close of every business day, the exact condition of the state funds.

With these two laws in the statute books, the only way left to rob the State Treasury would be to take the money and run, with the police on your trail by the next morning, at the latest. Now the old way was much more convenient as it allowed the grafter to stay right in Columbus, go on drawing his official salary from the state, and invest his graft in Columbus sky scrapers and bank stock.

If Creamer is defeated, and the legislature remains Republican, the old way is still open. Is any honest taxpayer interested in restoring that situation? If so, vote against Creamer and Harmon, by all means.

For Senators, Mayor W. E. Haas of Delaware, and C. W. Miller of Newark, are the popular candidates to represent the Fifteenth-Sixteenth district in the Ohio Senate. These gentlemen are able, honest and industrious, and the people of the district should be proud to have such representative citizens in the upper branch of the legislature. They will conscientiously look after the needs of their constituents, and of equal importance would be their vote to place United States Senator Dick on the retired list. Vote for them—New Lexington Herald.

Many Republican newspapers of the state are appealing to their party candidates for the Legislature to pledge themselves not to vote for Dick for United States Senator if elected. But no such appeal is made in Newark. The party bosses here are rock-ribbed champions for Dick.

W. D. Fulton has made a good counsellor. He is a lawyer and a business man. He will represent the people's interests in the Legislature. And Mr. Fulton will not vote for Senator Dick.

COX SHALL HAVE A "SQUARE DEAL"

Warren G. Harding's Speech at Cincinnati

In a speech at Dayton last February Mr. Harding implied that the charges of graft being established against former Republican officials were "magnified misdemeanors." The $214,998 returned by French, Gibson and Rud Hynicka, former treasurers of Hamilton county, can hardly be classed as "magnified misdemeanors." The $5,747 settled for Guilbert and the $31,809 claim pending, are most too big to be called "magnified misdemeanors." The McKinnon suits for $116,785 and the Cameron suits for $211,720 are somewhat over sized if they are only "magnified misdemeanors." Mark Slater would hardly agree with Mr. Harding that the $38,000 graft in his department is only a "magnified misdemeanor." Then there are the claims against Laylin and Thompson and Rogers and My Davis not yet sued for by Attorney General Denman—perhaps these are only "magnified misdemeanors." At any rate not even "magnified misdemeanors" would have been heard of if Judson Harmon had been defeated two years ago. The defeat of Governor Harmon for re-election would be a misdemeanor of the first magnitude without being magnified.

DICK IS THE VITAL ISSUE

There is not an independent paper in Ohio that does not oppose Dick. Republican papers of Columbus, Cleveland, Youngstown and Toledo are opposed to Dick. But the Dick bosses have nominated the candidates for the Legislature, and it may be counted on as a certainty that they are all pledged to Dick. The Dick bosses nominated the Republican candidates for Senators in this district and for Representative in this county. Their election means three votes for Dick, and that is the vital issue before the people in this district and county.

Another of the alleged Anti-Bryan circulars has made its appearance. Unlike the scurrilous and anonymous circular put out some days ago, this second circular is signed, "Milton Shaeffer, Canton, O., a Bryan Democrat."

The fun of it is that Milton Shaeffer is known at Canton as a Socialist. Another fool for the g. o. p. state committee that is trying to elect Harding by fooling the people.

The first circular was taken to Lancaster, London, Delaware, Newark and other postoffices for mailing so that it would not bear the Columbus postmark, evidently for the purpose of concealing its original and identity. But the union label imprint on the circular shows that IT WAS PRINTED IN COLUMBUS.

The union label on the circular signed by "Milton Shaeffer, Canton, O., a Bryan Democrat," also shows that it was printed in Columbus.

How hard up Mr. Harding's campaign managers are that they must persuade a Socialist to sign one of their campaign circulars as a pretended Bryan Democrat.

But really this hoax looks like a forgery, and the probability is that Mr. Schaeffer never signed the circular at all.

Fred Cully is an experienced surveyor. His work can be depended upon to be accurate and he is always accommodating. Mr. Cully is a candidate for re-election.

Robbins Hunter, appointed Probate Judge by Governor Harmon and placed upon the Democratic ticket by the county committee, has been too busy attending to the duties of his office to make a personal canvass. He preferred to stay in the office and do the work that accumulated during Judge Brister's illness, rather than neglect it and go out seeking votes. The people admire this action of Judge Hunter and they are going to vote for him next Tuesday and elect him Probate Judge. He is young, active thoroughly competent and honest.

Mr. W. D. Fulton is receiving so many assurances of support from the best citizens all over the country that he feels the personal abuse that has appeared in the columns of the American-Tribune is having the effect of increasing the size of his majority. Many farmers are taking an active interest in Mr. Fulton's candidacy for they have confidence that he will be a valuable member of the Legislature.

C. L. Riley, who is a candidate for re-election to the important office of County Auditor, has made a splendid official during his first term. He is a man of unquestioned capability and integrity and will be elected by a large majority. All who have the best interests of the county at heart will vote for Mr. Riley for Auditor.

Edwin M. Larason, Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Courts, is a man whose reputation for integrity and square dealing has never been questioned. The office to which he is a candidate for re-election, judging by his past record, could not possibly be placed in better hands.

Mr. J. M. Farmer comes before the people of Licking county, asking for a re-election to the important office of Recorder, which he has so efficiently filled during his first term. He deserves another term and will be elected by an old time Democratic majority.

The union label on the circular signed by "Milton Shaeffer, Canton, O., a Bryan Democrat," also shows that it was printed in Columbus.

How hard up Mr. Harding's campaign managers are that they must persuade a Socialist to sign one of their campaign circulars as a pretended Bryan Democrat.

But really this hoax looks like a forgery, and the probability is that Mr. Schaeffer never signed the circular at all.

Fred Cully is an experienced surveyor. His work can be depended upon to be accurate and he is always accommodating. Mr. Cully is a candidate for re-election.

Robbins Hunter, appointed Probate Judge by Governor Harmon and placed upon the Democratic ticket by the county committee, has been too busy attending to the duties of his office to make a personal canvass. He preferred to stay in the office and do the work that accumulated during Judge Brister's illness, rather than neglect it and go out seeking votes. The people admire this action of Judge Hunter and they are going to vote for him next Tuesday and elect him Probate Judge. He is young, active thoroughly competent and honest.

Mr. W. D. Fulton is receiving so many assurances of support from the best citizens all over the country that he feels the personal abuse that has appeared in the columns of the American-Tribune is having the effect of increasing the size of his majority. Many farmers are taking an active interest in Mr. Fulton's candidacy for they have confidence that he will be a valuable member of the Legislature.

C. L. Riley, who is a candidate for re-election to the important office of County Auditor, has made a splendid official during his first term. He is a man of unquestioned capability and integrity and will be elected by a large majority. All who have the best interests of the county at heart will vote for Mr. Riley for Auditor.

Edwin M. Larason, Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Courts, is a man whose reputation for integrity and square dealing has never been questioned. The office to which he is a candidate for re-election, judging by his past record, could not possibly be placed in better hands.

Mr. J. M. Farmer comes before the people of Licking county, asking for a re-election to the important office of Recorder, which he has so efficiently filled during his first term. He deserves another term and will be elected by an old time Democratic majority.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS WERE ENTHUSIASTIC

Crowds Turn Out at Clay Lick and Welsh Hills to Hear Democratic Orators Speak.

Two of the most enthusiastic Democratic meetings of the campaign were held on Thursday night at Clay Lick and the Welsh Hills school house, in the Welsh Hills, both being largely attended.

The meeting held at Clay Lick was the largest and most enthusiastic that has been held in that part of the county in a number of years. Voters from all parts of the township were present, showing that great interest is being felt in the campaign.

At an early hour in the evening quite a number of enthusiastic Democrats, together with the speakers, went down to Clay Lick and were met by the Clay Lick brass band and escorted to the Hickey hall, which had been donated for the occasion by Mr. Edward Hickey. When the Newark party arrived they found the hall well filled by expectant voters, there being a number of women in attendance.

Mr. C. L. V. Holtz acted as chairman of the meeting and introducing the speakers made some telling remarks which were greatly appreciated by the large crowd in attendance.

Hon. James R. Fitzgibbon was the first speaker. He spoke on the necessity of electing Judson Harmon and the entire Democratic ticket. He assured those present that all the signs pointed to a splendid victory that will not only demonstrate that Harmon has made good, but that the entire Democratic ticket will be elected which will enable Governor Harmon to carry out the plans he has for the good of the people. Mr. Fitzgibbon also spoke on the tariff question. During his remarks he gave an illustration showing that good sirloin steak can be bought in Montreal for 18 cents per pound while the same kind of meat was selling in Boston for 35 cents a pound. His remarks made a good impression on his hearers.

Mr. James R. Hill, of Johnstown, was the next speaker. Mr. Hill spoke for some time on the necessity of Democrats turning out on election day and voting the entire Democratic ticket, from Governor Harmon down.

Speeches were also made by Judge Robbins Hunter, Democratic candidate for probate judge; Edwin Larson, candidate for re-election as clerk of the courts, and C. L. Riley, candidate for county auditor. The latter showed in a very convincing manner where the one per cent tax rate was one of the things needed in Ohio.

Between the speeches made by the regular speakers the chairman, Mr. Holtz, made short and telling remarks.

Besides the speakers among those from Newark who attended the meeting were J. M. Farmer, candidate for re-election as county recorder; William Mason, and James Sheridan.

The meeting at the Welsh Hills school house, in Granville township, was attended by voters from all over the hills, and those who were present report that it was one of the best meetings ever held in that vicinity. The meeting was presided over by Prof. Ben Jones, and the speakers were Phil B. Smythe, candidate for re-election as prosecuting attorney, and Attorney Roderic Jones. The first speaker was Mr. Smythe, who devoted the greater part of his remarks to a discussion of the taxation question and local issues. He said that in his opinion there was no longer any question about the success of the state ticket but that it was a question of the largeness of Harmon's majority.

Mr. Jones devoted the main part of his talk to the question of graft and the general mismanagement of public affairs under the Republican administration. He also spoke briefly on the tariff question. The meeting was one calculated to result in much good.

Smashed His Finger.

Mr. Edward Jones, of Fifth street, while engaged in building a corn crib, Friday morning, smashed the third finger of his right hand by hitting it a terrific blow with a hammer. Dr. R. W. Jackson was called and dressed the injury and hopes are entertained that the finger may be saved, although it will be a couple of weeks before he can again use it.

THE STORY OF FATHER JOHN'S

Fifty years ago Rev. Father John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass. recommended to his parishioners and friends the prescription that restored him to the health and strength, so the people named it Father John's Medicine. It cures colds, throat and lungs and builds up the body.

As a guarantee that the story of Father John's Medicine is absolutely true, the sum of $25,000 will be given to any charitable institution if it can be shown otherwise.

JOHNNY EVERS OFFERED JOB AS MANAGER

New Orleans, La., Nov. 4.—Horace Fogel, president of the Philadelphia National league club, who is here in connection with a damage suit against the Western Union Telegraph company, because a messenger boy ran over him with a bicycle, said Thursday that Johnny Evers, the crack Chicago player, who broke his leg, would make a fine manager, and said that if he could get him he was going to make a try. He would not say that he was going to let Manager Doolin out, as the result of Doolin's trade of players with the Cincinnati club, but left the impression that if he could get Evers or a man as good as he would cinch the deal.

He said he had not been doing any talking about the trade with Cincinnati, as "Cincinnati had been doing all the bluffing and talking and he had kept quiet, but he did say that the whole question with him, was whether an employee could dispose of the assets of the club without his sanction. "I have never said whether I liked the deal or not," said Fogel. "but I do say that no employee can make any trades without my sanction. Baseball law covers that pretty clearly, and if baseball law does not, then the common law does. If Mr. Herrmann has any trades to offer, I am the one in authority to be consulted, and any trade with anybody else affecting my men don't go."

CANDIDATES

In Hoosier State Are Not Seeking Office and Are Working for Each Other.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 4.—Any gold-darned party that didn't have any more sense than to nominate me for the position of justice of the peace ought to see elected a man like Joseph Zehner, even though he is a Democrat.

That is the kind of a stumpy speech Isaiah Duddleston, Republican candidate for justice of the peace in Delaware township, this county has been making. He has been working hard for the election of his opponent, Jos. Zehner, and Mr. Zehner has been working just as hard to try to elect the Republican candidate.

The campaign has become so warm that both have been indulging in personalities—each decrying his own abilities and lauding his opponent. The campaign is no joke with the two candidates, although it affords humor for the entire county as the office pays little and would interfere with the business interests of the candidates.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Story Of Jumbo

Jumbo Never Tried to Harm Any of Them

ONE evening daddy began his bedtime story by saying Evelyn and Jack: "Children, did you ever hear of Jumbo?" "I did not," said Jack, and Evelyn said, "Nor I."

That made daddy smile. "Well, if you had been living when I was a boy," he said, "you would not need to be told about Jumbo. He was the most famous elephant that ever lived and probably the biggest. For many years he was the pet of the children of England, and for three years he made the children of America happy. They liked Jumbo, and he seemed to like them, and it was a great shock to them when Jumbo was killed. What made it particularly sad was the way in which the big animal lost his life. He might have been living to this day if he had not tried to save the life of a baby elephant."

Jumbo and the baby elephant, with about a dozen others, belonged to the biggest circus in America. He went traveling around the country with the circus, and the very first thing the children wanted to see when they went to the show was Jumbo. He was so big that the smallest children and even some of the older ones were just a bit afraid to stand in front of him, but Jumbo never tried to harm any of them. He was a good elephant, and he was eleven feet six inches tall and weighed 12,000 pounds.

"One day the circus was traveling in Canada. It was necessary to remove the elephants from the circus camp to a railroad train in order to take them to another town. Jumbo was very fond of the little baby elephant, and the keepers always kept them together. This time the two were being led on the railroad track toward their train. All the other elephants but Jumbo, the baby elephant and one other had been loaded on the train, when by some mistake a freight train was sent along the track on which the three elephants were standing. The men heard the whistle and tried hard to get the animals out of the way, but it was no use. Jumbo just had time to see the danger of his little baby elephant friend before the train reached them. He picked the little fellow up in his trunk and threw him to one side of the track, clear of the rails. Then he tried to get off the track himself, but it was too late. The train struck him and killed him instantly."

"And was the little baby elephant saved, daddy?" asked Evelyn.

"I am sorry to tell you that it was not," answered daddy. "When Jumbo picked him up and threw him out of the way of the train it was with such force that the little animal's leg was broken. He had to be shot."

FEET TIRED SO TIRED?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well, No Matter What Ails Them.

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof.

It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, bad smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

"For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires to be known to be universally used." A. F. Dreutzer, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous excretions which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet — your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale by all druggists, 55 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pain in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 333 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

MURDER CHARGES

Against Rosenheimer, Who Killed a Girl with Auto, Are Stricken From the Indictment.

New York, Nov. 4.—At the close of testimony in the Rosenheimer trial today Justice O'Gorman struck out of the bill of indictments the charges of first and second degree murder and first degree manslaughter and instructed the jury that if they found Rosenheimer guilty at all it can be for no more serious offense than second degree manslaughter, which carries a penalty of from 10 to 20 years.

The justice also ruled that Rosenheimer need not tell whether he had ever been arrested for speeding. This is counted a big point for the defense.

THREE VOTES.

Every Licking county voter will have an opportunity next Tuesday of casting a ballot equivalent to three votes either for or against Senator Charles Dick, who in the United States Senate was Senator Aldrich's "Man Friday."

If you vote for Capt. W. A. Lovett, Dr. C. D. Watkins and Mr. DeLong you cast three votes for Dick.

If you vote for W. D. Fulton, Chas. W. Miller and Wm. E. Haas you cast three votes against Dick.

Charles Dick is not big enough to represent a great state like Ohio in the Senate. His friendship for the interests, his subservience to Aldrich and the Trusts, and his boss methods in Ohio politics are sufficient to warrant you to vote against him. Vote for Fulton, Miller and Haas the Democratic Legislative candidates.

The canal probe is eliciting testimony more and more dangerous. This graft and robbery have been going on for years and scarcely any effort made to correct it. The efforts to do so now are remarkable. In the heat of a most strenuous campaign it is a wonder that anything can be done. Once the election over and Governor Harmon relieved from campaign duties, the fur will fly and this is what troubles the bosses. The cabinet from Washington has been rushed in to protect the favorite grafters.

One Way of Saving a Baby—Free to Try

The mother does not live who would not do all in her power to keep her child healthy, but often she does not know how. So when a doctor of standing points the way all can afford to listen. It is an accepted fact that nine out of ten of the troubles of infants and children are intestinal. You notice it by the fact that the child is constipated, it belches, is peevish and cries. Don't give a remedy that contains an opiate, because the child will get in the habit of needing it, and don't become alarmed and run at once for a doctor. Try a scientific laxative first. Give a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the remedy that is intended for the use of children. It is mild, gentle and non-gripping. The remedy is absolutely pure and is guaranteed in every particular. Mrs. Toomey of Emigsville, Pa., and

It will be to Newark's interest to have a personal representative in the Ohio Senate. By electing Charles W. Miller, Newark will have one of her live, energetic lawyers and business men in the Legislature. Of course he will be alive to the interests of his home city. Mr. Miller should receive a heavy complimentary vote from men who are not members of his own party. Mr. Miller will not vote for Dick.

In the last quarter of a century there is but one man in Licking county whose long experience made him the equal of C. L. Riley in personal qualification for the discharge of the duties of County Auditor. His name needs no mention, for it is a household word, but vote for Mr. Riley on next Tuesday.

Fellow Democrats now is the time to look out for all sorts of false reports and malicious slanders about the Democratic candidates. You may expect to see them in every locality in the county, from now on until the election booths close on next Tuesday evening. Do not allow yourself to fall into the trap that the Republican bosses are about to spring on you.

Do you wish to see Charles Dick, the man who stood by Senator Aldrich in his tariff schedule robbery, returned to the United States Senate? If you are opposed to Dick bossism cast your ballots for the Democratic legislative candidates.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

(Enquirer)

In Massachusetts Candidate Foss is applying to the voters in the entire state the same arguments as to the high costs of living and its relation to the tariff that served him so well in the Fourteenth Congressional District when he carried it last spring. He bases his claims for election as Governor upon the strength and power of that issue with the industrial workers of his state.

In Connecticut the Democrats find the same classes of population as in Massachusetts, and there also they are pressing the Foss idea, and are confident of securing large accessions through its potency with the consumers. In every city in New York and New Jersey, in every industrial center of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois, Democratic campaigners find ready listeners to their arguments against the high costs of living, and it is undoubtedly the most powerful arraignment of the tariff law that can be made.

More than a year ago The Enquirer pointed out the danger to the Republican party from this issue in the cities and in every industrial district of the country. The dinner pails may not be empty, but it costs twice as much to fill them as it did in 1896, and the party in power is held responsible for the change in the prices.

The Republican orators may attribute the high costs to trusts, and the voter asks, Why do you not crush them? They may say it is the great production of gold, and the voter replies: You told us the gold dollar was always honest and never changed in value. They may say it is the high costs of transportation, the middlemen's profits, the effect of monopolies, and they are answered: You should protect us from all these.

Thus the entire onus is placed upon the party in power, and harassed dumfounded, divided and discordant, it cannot meet the issue squarely, and political control is being wrested from it by the dinner-pail brigade.

"George B. Cox shall have a 'square deal.'"—Harding's speech at Cincinnati.

Get in line early next Tuesday morning and cast your ballot for honest Governor Harmon and the entire Democratic ticket and you will make no mistake.

One of the most popular men who ever filled the office of Commissioner of Licking county is George T. Tavenner. His judgment is sound in the matter of all public improvements and his integrity and thoughtfulness are always in evidence on the side of economy in the matter of expenditures. His hosts of friends are active in his behalf and there is no doubt of his election, but every vote in his favor will make his majority that much larger.

Treasurer of State D. S. Creamer has collected interest on state funds since he took office, by the competitive bidding plan inaugurated by him, from January 11, 1909 to November 1, 1910, $309,368.37, and the state got the money. This is $159,912 more money than was ever paid over by any of Mr. Creamer's Republican predecessors in the same length of time.

That "square deal" which Harding is going to give to George B. Cox, after he is elected, means complete protection for the Cox graft.

If the Democrats of old Licking hustle and get out the vote next Tuesday one of the largest Democratic majorities ever given in the county will be the result.

Again we admonish our readers to pay no attention to last day roorbacks. It is a favorite trick of the Republican machine and will not accomplish the results expected for Licking county voters are too intelligent to place any credence on last hour sensations.

Have you noticed how the straw votes are running? have you observed that no Republican papers in Ohio are publishing them this year?

Wm. E. Haas, one of the Democratic candidates for Senator, is the Mayor of a Republican city. That shows what those who know him best think of him. As Mayor Mr. Haas has been a success. He will be a success

QUEEN WILHELMINA TO RAISE GOATS IN A

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 2.—According to Francis L. Robbins, president of the Alabama Portland Cement and Coal company, Queen Wilhelmina of Holland is going to raise Angora goats in this state. The queen is interested in the company and has suggested that 14,000 acres be set aside for the raising of goats. Angora goats will be raised on the hillsides of the rough part of our property and hogs and cattle on the other parts not adapted to the raising of corn and tobacco," said Pres. Robbins. "We will pay special attention to the goats, as they are becoming rapidly an article of great value, not only for their pelts, but for their flesh. We have found that thousands of these animals were slaughtered for food in Chicago last year. We will ship our goats to Chicago. In the meantime we will be taking out the coal from under our land and building cement mills at other points."

"Ticket for Buffalo," said a young lady, opening her satchel and hunting for her portemonnaie. Then suddenly she exclaimed: "Oh, heavens! I've been robbed!"

"Two tickets to Buffalo," said a young man next in line.

The tickets were handed out, paid for and one of them slipped into the girl's hand before she had time to recover from the effect of her loss.

The young man caught up a suit case the girl had set down beside her and hurried her off to the train. Having found her a seat and racked her suit case, he was about to leave her when she made room for him beside her.

"Please let me know who you are and the price of the ticket," she said, "that I may send you the amount."

The young man took an old envelope from his pocket, wrote on it John Sparkline, with his address, and gave it to her. Then they fell to talking of how the thief could have got the pocketbook.

"There was but one moment," she said, "that it was out of my possession. I was sitting in the waiting room and a candy boy came along. I had small coins inside my glove, and I laid my bag down on the seat beside me while I paid for some candy."

"A candy boy is the most dangerous thing a girl can meet," said Mr. Sparkline dryly. The girl looked up at him, but as his face was perfectly serious she continued:

"A man sat in the seat next the one in which I had the satchel."

"What did he look like?"

"I haven't an idea."

"Complimentary?"

"What do you mean?"

"You evidently weren't attracted by the man's appearance."

Again she looked at him.

"Are you sure you wouldn't recognize him again?"

"No, I wouldn't."

The couple talked for three hours, which seemed but one, and when they were within a short distance of their destination the young man turned to the girl and said impressively:

"Did you ever take the first step in crime?"

"No," she replied in astonishment.

"I have."

"Oh, heavens! Are you a criminal?"

"I stole your pocketbook."

"You stole my pocketbook?"

"Alas, I must confess it."

"But you have loaned me half as much as it contained."

"That came from remorse."

"But it seems to me the remorse came very quickly."

"I couldn't bear to see you troubled," she looked at him sideways.

"I don't believe a word you say."

He took the portemonnaie from his pocket and handed it to her.

"Please don't have me arrested," he pleaded. "I am the child of poor but dishonest parents, who taught me to steal when I was a little boy."

"I thought you said something about a first crime."

"Did I? They taught me to lie too."

"Poor child."

"When I saw you lay your bag on the seat between you and me I could not resist the temptation. Oh, why did you leave it there?"

"I'm so sorry. I didn't know I was tempting any one. Why don't you reform?"

"I haven't any one to reform me."

"But is it necessary that you should have some one for that? Can't you do it yourself?"

"No, I'm too far gone."

"What do you want any one to do to help you?"

"Why, I think that if I could see you once a week and you would encourage me I might pull through to a permanent reformation."

She thought awhile, then said:

"If you really think I can help you I shall be very glad to have you come every Saturday to tell me that you haven't picked any one's pocket during the week."

"Oh, how I thank you! I know you can save me and make an honest man of me."

"The only thing that troubles me," she said thoughtfully, "is that I must tell father, and I'm afraid he'll object."

"Tell him to go to Mr. William Evans, — Locust street. He is interested in me and knows something to my advantage."

When they reached the station the penitent handed the girl out to a carriage, and she drove away, giving him an encouraging smile and promising to let him know the decision in his case. She told her father about it, and he gave her a scolding. But she forced him to make the inquiry of Mr. Evans. When he had done so he said to his daughter:

"Bis, the fool killer is coming this evening to carry you away."

"What do you mean, papa?"

"Evans, whom I have long known, tells me that this man is Jack Sparkline, his nephew, worth half a million and full of the Old Nick. I've given permission for the young rascal to call."

"But he did steal my purse."

"Of course he did, and with a view to making your acquaintance."

"Oh, my goodness gracious! And I told him he might come on Saturdays to assure me he hadn't picked a pocket during the week?"

NO BID ON BONDS OF NEW ORLEANS

City Unable to Obtain Funds For Proposed Improvements.

MUCH DISAPPOINTMENT FELT

Municipal Betterments to Cost Seven Million Dollars Likely to Be Held Up Indefinitely—Looks as Though the Crescent City Was Hardly in a Position to Finance a World's Exposition.

New Orleans has no bladders for her $7,000,000 of sewerage bonds and water bonds and it looks as though her greatest project for municipal improvement would be held up indefinitely through lack of funds to prosecute the work. It would seem as though New Orleans was hardly in a position to finance a World's exposition, even with the aid of the state of Louisiana, when her local bankers refuse to purchase her bonds on their own terms.

This financial predicament of San Francisco's rival for exposition honors is told in the following press dispatch from the Crescent City:

"New Orleans, La., Oct. 4.—Despite several months of negotiation through the Hibernia Bank and Trust company, and in spite of a special act of the last legislature to facilitate the financial negotiations, when the city board of liquidation met at noon today there was no bid for the $7,000,000 improvement bonds by which the great sewerage and water project of this city was to have been completed.

"Much disappointment is felt at the failure of the bonds to sell, as this great municipal project may be seriously delayed. Mayor Behrman and City Attorney I. D. Moore both issued statements tonight explaining the reasons.

"About a year ago, the Interstate Bank and Trust company agreed to finance the $7,000,000 bond issue provided it was given the benefit of being the depository of the funds collected at 2 per cent interest. The contention was raised that the bond taker could not be the depository. Then a legislative enactment was secured to make it legal for the buyer to become the fiscal agent of the funds, but still the bonds are unsold."

BOND INTEREST EQUALS TAX

Louisiana Exposition Securities Will Be Unpaid at End of Ten Years.

The following press dispatch, published in the New Orleans Times-Democrat, is self-explanatory:

"Crowley, La., Sept. 23.—A petition to the voters of Acadia parish is being circulated, calling upon the voters to register, in order to be in a position to vote against the Panama exposition tax, Nov. 8. The petition recites that, according to the statement, the country parishes are assessed at $104,573,528 and the city or parish of New Orleans at $231,045,987, and that as per the present assessment the country will pay $105,639.80 per year, or $1,066,398 in 10 years, and New Orleans $1,732,844.50. It states further that the interest on these bonds will be $280,000 per year, or just about equal to the amount of tax paid in each year, so that at the end of 10 years the state will still owe the six and one-half million dollars at 4 per cent interest bonds, which by the act the parish of Orleans proposes to pay. The sentiment is divided on this question of taxation, and the promoters of this petition declare that they will push it through."

Give California Fair Deal.

There seems to be a controversy on between New Orleans and San Francisco for the World's Panama Exposition, which will be held in 1915. Both cities are claiming that they are each the most logical point for the great exposition and then they clamor about the money possibilities. While we are not inclined to mix up in this fight and injure the possibilities of either place by settling the question as to where the exposition shall be held, yet we think the west is entitled to some of the good things, and we suggest that the Sunset state be given at least a fair deal in this matter.—Gallup (N. M.) Republican.

Will Benefit The Whole Coast.

The Napa Register says the master of the State Grange expresses the sentiments of the people living in that section when he says of the proposed Panama-Pacific exposition: "An exposition of this nature, if properly managed, can not fail to be of vast benefit, not only to California, but to the whole Pacific coast. I believe the Grange will do well to favor and encourage the movement."

Will Pay Its Own Bill.

San Francisco boosters are going about in the most practical way to secure support for their proposed exposition. They have raised a large sum of money, more than was ever invested in an exposition in America, and propose to pay their own bills without tapping the government till. This will commend San Francisco to the public.—Omaha Bee.

GIVE YOUR STOMACH A NICE VACATION

Don't Do It By Starving It Either—Let a Substitute Do the Work.

The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies just as well to the stomach, one of the most important organs of the human system, as it does to the man, himself.

If your stomach is worn out and rebels against being further taxed beyond its limit, the only sensible thing you can do is to give it a rest. Employ a substitute for a short time and see if it will not more than repay you in results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stomach in just the same way as the stomach itself would, were it well. They contain all the essential elements that the gastric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach contain and actually act just the same and do just the same work as the natural fluids would do were the stomach well and sound. They, therefore, relieve the stomach just as one workman relieves another, and permit it to rest and recuperate and regain its normal health and strength.

This "vacation" idea was suggested by the letter of a prominent lawyer in Chicago. Read what he says: "I was engaged in the most momentous undertaking of my life in bringing about the coalition of certain great interests that meant much to me as well as to my clients. It was not the work of days, but of months. I was working night and day almost, when at a very critical time my stomach went clear back on me. The undue mental strain brought it about and hurried up what would have happened later on.

"What I ate I had to literally force down and that was a source of misery as I had a sour stomach much of the time. My head ached, I was sluggish and began to lose my ambition to carry out the undertaking. It looked pretty gloomy for me and I confided my plight to one of my clients. He had been cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and at once he went down to a drug store and brought a box up to the office.

"I had not taken a quarter of that box before I found that they would do all the work my stomach ever did, and as a rest or vacation was out of the question for me, I determined to give my stomach a vacation. I kept right on taking the tablets and braced up and went ahead with my work, with renewed vigor, as just as much as I ever did and carried out that undertaking to a successful issue. I feel that I have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to thank for saving me the handsomest fee I ever received as well as my reputation and last but not least, my health."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box.

LAUGHTER

Shook the Hoosier for 12 Hours Before He Finally Fell From Exhaustion.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Nov. 4.—Trading a mule for a shaved tail horse appealed to the humor of S. H. Schrappe of this city and he began laughing. He laughed ten minutes, an hour, with the tears rolling down his cheeks and still he didn't stop. His friends becoming alarmed, summoned a physician, but the physician couldn't stop the hearty Ha! Ha! When six hours had passed and Schrappe was still convulsed with laughter, another physician was called and still the horse trader's merriment ruled.

Schrappe was proclaimed the champion marathon laughter, but that didn't stop him and an electric battery was brought into play. Just as the merry laugh had rounded out 12 hours, the trader was given a heavy electric shock, the Ha! Ha! ceased and Schrappe fell over exhausted. It was thought for a time that the man would die, but today he shows no ill effects from the long laugh.

The Deserted House

By EDITH V. ROSS

Copyright, 1920, by American Press Association

There was smuggling on the coast, but we revenue officers were not able to locate the point where the goods were being run in. We were told that it was a beach midway between the two principal ports of the region. We waited the coast night and day for weeks, but not a sign of illicit work did we see. Driving to the city, I reached a point on a rocky coast. Night was coming on, and no hotel or other shelter was at hand. I espied a house a short distance ahead of me, set on rocks against which the waves were beating. It was of brick and colonial in style, with long pillars extending from the porch to the roof, which was built out to cover it. The place had a forlorn look, and on coming up to it I found it unoccupied.

I went around it, thinking that if I could effect an entrance I would at least find shelter there for the night, but there was not a window or a door that was not perfectly secured. I was about to drive on, when I espied a limb of a tree brushing against an upper window, one shutter of which had rotted away. I climbed the tree, went out on the limb, broke the glass and entered the house.

Had it not been for curiosity I would have gone out as quick as I came in. While it was furnished throughout, there was not an article in it that was not rotting away. There was bed-clothing, but it was moth eaten; there were curtains, but they were dropping from their supports; there were carpets, but they came apart as I walked over them. The only live things in the house were millions of bugs.

I would have retired from this dismal abode and slept in the open air, but the night was cool and I espied a fireplace in one of the rooms. So with the fragments of once handsome chairs and other articles I built a fire. Then, having gone out for my blankets and stashed my horse, I rolled myself in the former, lay down before the fire and slept.

Something awakened me. I knew not what. The fire was out, but there was a strip of light on the ceiling above my head. While I was viewing it with perplexity it moved. In a moment, remembering that I was on the ground floor and the flooring had shrunk so as to leave cracks, it occurred to me that there was some one in the cellar. Noticing a round spot of light on the ceiling, I knew it came through a knot-hole, and, crawling to the hole, I could look into the cellar.

Several men were storing bales and boxes.

"Oho!" I exclaimed to myself. "Here is the leak! While we have been watching the smugglers above they have been running goods in down here. I warrant the man who put us on to the false location was one of them."

I made up my mind very quickly as to my course of action—that is, in case they didn't go to the stable and find my horse, which would betray me. I would remain where I was till morning, then pursue my journey, return with others, lie in wait for the smugglers and capture the gang. They were not in the cellar ten minutes after I awakened. Then the light ceased to shine, and there was no further evidence of their presence. I listened to hear them go out, to make sound of locking a door or give other evidence of their departure, but not a whisper did I hear. They seemed to have gone into the ground or down up a chimney.

In the morning I went into the cellar, examined the goods, consisting of silks, laces and other articles to which a high duty is attached. I then went above and looked carefully to the openings. They were all barred and bolted on the inside. Returning to the cellar, I looked about for some means of egress there. I found none. There seemed to be no way the men could get out except as I had come in, through a window.

But how did they bring in the cases of goods?

Not willing to leave the place without further investigation, I walked all over the premises and down to the rocks on which the waves were breaking. Unfortunately the tide was high. It was unfortunate because I could have made a more satisfactory examination of the rocks if it had been at the ebb. I resolved to drive to the nearest farmhouse, get a breakfast and return in six hours when the tide would be at the lowest point. When I went back I found that a rock had been left exposed which I couldn't see from the shore. There was no boat at hand, but the water was sufficiently shallow for me to get on to a small rock farther out. After reaching it I turned and saw an opening in the rock into which a boat could be pulled at half tide. I was bound not to go away without knowing all about it, so I made a raft, pulled myself to the opening and walked through a passage leading in the direction of the house, till I was barred by an iron door.

That satisfied me for the time. I went home, brought assistance, entered the house when no one else was about, waited for the next appearance of the smugglers and took them all in.

Subsequent investigation showed that they had concealed a trapdoor in a sub-cellar with earth, the trap opening into the passage leading to the water. At high tide the mouth of the passage was concealed and at low tide resembled a mere cleft in the rocks.

BAD COLDS AND GRIPPE VANISH IN A FEW HOURS

The most effective and harmless way to cure the Grippe or break a severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, is a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

You will distinctly feel the cold breaking and all gripe symptoms going after the very first dose. It promptly relieves the most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dull aching and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic aching.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

After three years' research we have conclusively demonstrated that quinine is not effective in the treatment of colds or gripe.

That "square deal" which Harding is going to give to George B. Cox, after he is elected, means complete protection for the Cox graft.

WORKING WOMEN

Here is a Helping Hand—A Newton Woman's Experience.

You know just how it is yourself—when you are tired out, perhaps a little run-down and hardly able to drag around, life is a burden, you are irritable, nervous, depressed and every little task seems like a mountain.

Miss Katharine Burns, of Newton, Mass., says: "About six months ago I was in a run-down condition and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians, but they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I noticed a great improvement. I have taken six bottles and I feel as well as ever, and I would recommend Vinol to anybody needing a good tonic to build them up and make them strong." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

We want to ask every woman who finds herself in this condition to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not help them. We know Vinol will create an appetite, aid digestion, make pure, rich blood, and in this way build up and strengthen the run-down, overworked, nervous system. You take no chances. Try it. F. D. Hall, druggist.

CORONER HOLDS THE ROAD RESPONSIBLE

Hamilton, Nov. 4.—Employees of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad are held responsible for the collision of one of their freight trains with a Big Four passenger train at Middletown, July 4, in the fatal accident of Coroner John Burnett of Butler county. The wreck caused the death of 25 persons. The coroner says: "I am of the opinion that Train Dispatcher Albert Smith of Dayton, an employee of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, was negligent and careless and is partly to blame, as are members of the crew of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and freight train, which was out on the main track at Middletown when it should have been in the siding, and Pilot Engineer Webster on the Big Four train."

LA FOLLETTE

Pays His Respects to the "Regulars" in Letter to Nebraska Republican State Committee.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 4.—I do not regard Senator Burkette as a progressive. His record shows I'm voting with the interests as often as with the people. I would not aid the election of any man because he was on the republican ticket unless his past affiliation warranted the belief that he would better serve the people than his opponent.

This is La Follette's summary of his stand with regard to Senator Burkette of Nebraska and regulars in general. Burkette is a member of the Republican party, but is not a Nebraska native.

Tonsilline Cures

Habitual smokers are often troubled with inflammation of the throat. This is called smokers' sore throat, and frequently becomes so painful that food is swallowed with difficulty.

If nothing is done to prevent it, the disease may develop into cancer of the throat. Hundreds of men have had to resort to surgical operations because of it—many have died as a result of it.

If you have smokers' sore throat, don't disregard it. It may be gone tomorrow but it will surely return again and in a more severe form. It is Nature's danger signal. TONSILINE will positively cure you and keep the throat clean and healthy, preventing the consequences of neglect. TONSILINE is the result of years of careful study and practical work, and is made from drugs used for years in the cure of throat diseases. TONSILINE destroys the poison germs of all kinds of sore throat and cleanses away painful and poisonous ulceration. It soothes and heals the tender mouth and throat membranes and removes the cause of throat trouble.

A quick, safe, soothing, healing antiseptic cure for Sore Throat, briefly describes TONSILINE. We know from long experience it will do all we claim for it. 25 cents and 50 cents. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTED MURDER IN KALAMAZOO

Capt. Swank Makes Important Capture in West Newark for Michigan Officials.

Clever work on the part of Captain of Police Charles Swank resulted in the arrest last night of Fred Manning, wanted in Kalamazoo, Mich., on the charge of attempted murder. Manning was nabbed by the police in Ludy's pool room, West Newark.

Captain Swank received word a couple of days ago that Manning was supposed to be in Newark, and that he was wanted in the Michigan city. He was requested to be on the lookout for the man. After some work it was learned that the man wanted had reached Newark four days ago and had secured work here as a molder. Last night the tip was received that he was in Ludy's pool room and Captain Swank and Patrolmen Hinger and Swinehart went to the place.

While Officer Swinehart was sent to the back door to prevent escape in that way, the others entered the pool room and discovered Manning playing pool in the rear of the room. He was just making a shot when Captain Swank walked up behind him and said: "I want you, Fred." Looking up the man finished making his shot, and then asked who he was called. Fred, "Guess I didn't make a mistake," the captain said, and Manning was placed in the patrol. On the way to the city prison, the prisoner said he had "gotten in the rags" with a railroad switchman in Kalamazoo and had slashed him with a knife.

The sheriff of Kalamazoo county, for whom the arrest was made, was telegraphed last night, and he will send an officer to Newark with the reward, for there was a price on Manning's head. The cutting took place March 11, 1910, and shortly afterwards the sheriff came from Kalamazoo on the strength of a tip that he was supposed to be at work here. The police made a careful but futile search, but Manning was not found at that time.

An attempt was made this morning to secure Manning's freedom by some friends who secured his release on a writ of habeas corpus, but his liberty was short, for just as he stepped from the court house he was again arrested by Captain Swank and Patrolman Burke.

The police "got next" this morning that an attempt would be made to free Manning and they kept posted, and when they learned the writ would be granted Captain Swank went before Mayor Ankele and swore to a warrant charging Manning with carrying concealed weapons, as he had a large knife in his possession when searched at the city prison last night.

This action will mean that Manning will have to stay behind the bars until the arrival of the officer from Kalamazoo.

INJURY CRIPPLES YALE PLAYER

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—Despite the emphatic denial from the team, it was stated today that Yale's left end, Kilpatrick, one of the greatest players who ever wore the blue, will be out of the game for the season as the result of a severe muscle strain he received in yesterday's practice. It was a similar injury which kept Bonmeister, another end, out of the game from the first week of the season until this week. In Kilpatrick is incapacitated for the big games, Yale's chances will be lessened at least 25 per cent, for the big end was the fastest man on the team.

MURPHY CLAIMS "GUFF" FINISHED A BAD SECOND

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Statements that Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago Cubs has been the real stumbling block to the much discussed trade of baseball players between Philadelphia and Cincinnati were set at rest here today when the Cub magnate just back from a vacation denied that he had anything to do with the deal or had even communicated with President Horace Fogel of the Phillies since the season ended. That it was not Murphy's opposition to the deal which has made Fogel hold out against Herrmann, the Chicago man has vigorously denied. In fact he rather thinks Herrmann and Griffith have lost out if the exchange goes through. "Personally," Murphy said, "I think Manager Dooin made a clever deal when he secured Beebe, Rowan, Paskert and Lobert for the Philadelphia quartet. Grant, Bates, McQuillen and Moren Griffith has been unfortunate in nearly every trade he ever executed and it looks to me as if he had finished a bad second in this particular instance."

BANTAM WEIGHT CHAMPION FOUND

New York, Nov. 4. A coming bantam weight champion is believed to have been discovered in Johnny Daly, who practically held his own with Frankie Burns, who claims the title, in a ten-round bout at Brown's gymnasium last night. Burns' greater experience carried him through, safely, but there was never a time that Daly didn't appear dangerous. He carried the fight to Burns throughout and gave every indication of being in line for the highest honors in his class.

STATE HAS PURCHASED LICKING FARM

Which Will Be Used for Experimental Purposes—Will Move Reynoldsburg Plant.

The State of Ohio will make a thorough investigation of hog cholera and to this end 99 acres of land were purchased in Licking county and the farm for the experimental purposes will be located here. The land the state bought was owned by Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. Ella Smith and Thomas Painter, and the purchase price was $12,825.

For some time an experiment station, conducted by Dr. Fisher, has been located just east of Reynoldsburg and this plant will be moved to the new location. Hog cholera has cost Ohio farmers millions of dollars and the state is now prepared to make an exhaustive search for a serum that will prove effective against the disease.

TWO PRETTY COEDS CAPTURE BURGLAR

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 4.—How two pretty coeds of Beloit college corralled a burglar in a clothesbasket after a hard fight was revealed here today through the visits of physicians to the home of Miss Clara Hanaford, one of the participants in the affray who is prostrated by shock after her experience. Miss Hanaford and Miss Ruby Hofer of Freeport, were asleep in their room at Beloit college when the burglar's hands on their face aroused them. Leaping from bed the two grappled the thief and after a desperate fight overpowered and crushed him into big clothes hamper. Then being women they ran out and locked the door on the outside. Before help arrived the burglar had extricated himself and fled through an open window.

SAN FRANCISCO, the wonderful metropolis of the Pacific coast, is truly a magic city. Practically wiped out by the great conflagration of 1906, when $500,000,000 in property was reduced to ashes in three days, it stands today proud in its splendid rehabilitation, majestic and magnificent, a miracle of reconstruction wrought in four short years, grander and more beautiful than ever and showing in every line and tower of the mammoth skyscrapers that crowd and adorn its business section glowing evidence of the indomitable spirit and exhaustless energy of its people.

Filled with justifiable pride in the successful accomplishment of this great work, the builders of this magic city now propose to hold a great international exposition in 1915 to celebrate the consummation of that other wonder of constructive genius, that companion miracle of twentieth century achievement, the completion of the Panama canal, the most stupendous engineering feat in the history of the world.

The City Rebuilt.

San Francisco has been rebuilt, but the great work still goes on. More than $200,000,000 has been expended in the construction of splendid buildings and an additional $100,000,000 has been expended in various municipal improvements. The hundreds of millions of dollars in personal property that went up in smoke in that fateful April catastrophe cannot be brought back, but the people have forgotten that loss in the realization of the increased prosperity, present and prospective, for which they have struggled with almost superhuman energy and with splendid intelligence.

Within the next four years another $200,000,000 will have been spent in painting the lily, in putting the finishing touches on the beautiful city that already is the wonder of the world, in beautifying and adorning until San Francisco shall be the peer of any city in the world. The city beautiful which will greet the eyes of the hundreds of

San Francisco is not alone in its desire to celebrate the completion of the gigantic artificial waterway that is to connect the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, thereby providing a short cut for the commerce of the world from the ports of Europe and the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific coast and the orient. New Orleans also aspires to that honor, and its citizens backed by the state of Louisiana are making strenuous efforts to secure the

That theory is an exposed fallacy, as shown by the four international exhibitions that have been held in the United States since the exposition began, namely, the first in 1876, at Philadelphia, on the Atlantic seaboard; the second in 1882, at New York, on Long Island; the third in 1884, at New Orleans; and the fourth in 1886, at St. Louis, on the Mississippi river.

A WILY ORIENTAL

Guile of a Trecky Native Snake Charmer in India.

GATHERED IN THE SERPENTS.

It Was No Trouble to Him to Lure the Reptiles into His Basket, and the Supply Was in No Danger of Giving Out and Leaving Him a Job.

Among the numerous objectionable and dangerous creatures peculiar to the orient none is more repulsive than the snake. One shudders involuntarily as one thinks of its wiggling body and vicious characteristics. During my residence in India I never felt safe from its presence. I had my closets, bed and even my bathtub searched every day lest one should be found coiled up in some corner, writes Eliza K. Van Bergen in the Christian Intelligence.

I was always on the watch for the creatures and ever in mortal terror of treading on one. It never occurred to me to sleep without a light, and a stick was always near at hand lest I might find one unawares and be unprepared to meet it. I even looked upon my thin mosquito curtain as a slight protection, for it would at least break its fall should a snake tumble down suddenly from the ceiling.

The creatures have a decided preference for cool, damp places and often choose the bathroom and sometimes the tub for their habitation, much to the discomfort of its rightful habitue. It is not unalloyed bliss to live in a place infested with serpents. With such formidable enemies, one never forgets to be cautious, nor to guard against their presence and sudden attack. It makes one alert to be in the midst of danger and adds spice to life.

Well, as I started out to say, my garden was infested with snakes, and I was persuaded to have a native charmer summoned to lure them away. His hideous occupation, weird incantations and strange pets surround the snake charmer with a peculiar fascination. His magnetism and skill are considered phenomenal in the east.

This specimen was tall and lank and had deep, cavernous eyes and an abstracted air. Some of the creatures were coiled around his wrist, which made him still more repellent. He handled them as if they were perfectly harmless. About the neck he wore a chain with a dute attached. Two other jugglers accompanied him, similarly attired, but minus the snakes. One carried a closed basket on his arm.

He stopped at a respectful distance to make his "salam," which is the customary salute of the country. Then he approached the aloe hedge which inclosed my grounds, squatted himself tailor fashion on the grass and began to produce weird, plaintive sounds on the flute, to which music the reptiles entwined themselves around him and seemed to sway their bodies to and fro.

After some time a snake appeared, gliding slowly and stealthily out from the hedge toward the spot where it heard the enchanting music. The charmer allowed it to come quite close and to wind itself around his arm. Another followed and yet another, while the other two men stood by holding a basket ready to receive them as soon as they unwound themselves. At least a half dozen appeared and were disposed of in this manner. After being captured they appeared as if in a stupor.

Horrified with his performance, I begged him to stop and bade him leave the place. He assented and, picking up the basket, departed with the snakes without ever ceasing to play his uncanny tune. His companions gathered up the rest of his belongings and followed him. I paid a certain sum for each snake thus dispatched.

He came repeatedly thereafter and went through the same performance, conjuring up more reptiles and disposing of them in the same way until I began to suspect some trickery. He refused to allow the snakes to be killed, insisting that they were sacred and must not be put to death. It looked as if he replaced the snakes in the hedge after removing them, and thus he multiplied their number and increased his gains.

I was finally forced to have him removed by the police and threatened with punishment in order to keep him away. Nothing would persuade me to permit one of the fellows to enter my premises again.

Ample Qualified.

Proud Parent—If you would win my daughter, young man, you must prove to my satisfaction that you have fortitude, patience under discouraging circumstances, strength of character, courage, an indomitable will to succeed and, above all, an ability to bear with misfortune. Have you those qualifications? Sutor—I've known your daughter for some time, sir, and am asking you for her hand. Do you wish other assurances?

OWNERSHIP OF TRACTION LINE CHANGES HANDS

Anderson J. Herd and associates of New York, purchased the Columbus, New Albany and Johnstown Traction Company at a price of $187,500, their option upon it being about to expire.

The road, owned originally by Geo. B. Cox, W. D. Brickel, D. J. Ryan and L. T. Stephens, was purchased a year ago by A. L. Richmond, Jr., through whom the control was given to the Cincinnati bank which made loans on the property.

The new owners have incorporated under the name of the Columbus, Mt. Vernon and Mansfield Traction Company, and they state that they will extend the road from Gananna to and through Johnstown, Mt. Vernon and Mansfield. The route has not been decided upon. A proposition was suggested some time ago of bringing it to Homer and having a connection there for Newark by way of Ulica.

FINE APPOINTMENT

John A. McGrew, formerly a Columbus boy and a graduate of the Ohio State university, has just been appointed superintendent of the Saratoga and Champlain division of the Delaware and Hudson railroad. For some time he was superintendent of the National Engineering company, of Columbus. He is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. McGrew of Columbus—Columbus Dispatch.

Mr. McGrew formerly lived in Johnstown, this county, and his many friends there and in Newark will be pleased to learn of his well-deserved promotion.

A SEVERE CASE OF NEURALGIA CURED

The Treatment Which This Cleveland Woman Used with Such Success Is Available for Every Sufferer.

Many who are now tormented with neuralgia will read with interest the following statement of Mrs. W. L. Squire of No. 1854 East 14th Street, Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Squire was cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and has since enjoyed excellent health. She says:

"I was taken with what the doctors called facial neuritis, or neuralgia of the nerves of the face and suffered the most intense pain. They said my trouble was caused by overwork and worry but their treatment did not help me, nor even relieve the pain. Finally I was taken to the hospital and underwent an operation for the removal of the affected nerves. For a time after the operation I was better and then the old trouble returned with a vengeance. What I suffered cannot be told or written. My doctor advised me to submit to another operation but the thought of it was terrible to me. About this time I read an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try them. The result was that after taking a few boxes I found myself greatly benefited, so much so that I decided to forego the operation for a time at least. I can say now that I find myself entirely cured and am in better health than I have enjoyed for the last fifteen or sixteen years. I am very grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for my recovery and have recommended them to many people. I am a living testimonial of the worth of the medicine."

The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills succeeds where other treatments fail because it is based on the sound medical principle that the health of the nerves depends on pure, red blood. Every person who is interested in the home treatment of nervous disorders should send for the new edition of our booklet entitled, "Diseases of the Nervous System, Their Nature, Symptoms and Treatment." The booklet describes symptoms and gives much useful information. Address the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

NEW PLAN

ADOPTED BY ST. PAUL PUBLIC LIBRARY TO KEEP CHILDREN OFF THE STREETS.

Games Are Supplied Youngsters By Librarian and They May Keep Them Two Weeks.

St. Paul, Nov. 4.—Games, such as Mother Goose, Mother Hubbard, checkers, chess, jack straws, Humpty Dumpty and Robinson Crusoe, are supplied to St. Paul children by the Public Library to keep the youngsters off the street at night.

This is the first time any city in the country has added a game department to its Public Library from which games are issued under the same system by which books are loaned to the people to read. It is understood that an effort will be made to interest Andrew Carnegie in the plan and in future when he endows a library provision will be made to have a game department.

It is the idea of Miss Caroline Fairchild, a well known young St. Paul woman, to thus keep the youngsters around their own fireside under the watchful care of their mothers at night. In reading the reports of the Associated Charities, Miss Fairchild was convinced that too many Saint Paul children have been playing on the streets at night. She at once began to think of a plan to keep the tots at home and struck upon the plan of a game service in the Public Library. The plan was suggested to Mrs. H. J. McCaine, librarian, who approved it and immediately obtained the sanction of the library board to adopt it.

It was considered necessary only to issue the games once a week and Saturday was selected as the day. The plan was put into effect Saturday, October 29, and of the 100 games on hand when the department opened in the morning, but few were left when all the children who applied were supplied. The child is permitted to use the game two weeks, return it and get another. This is about the only condition connected with the loaning of the games. A request for a card is all that is necessary to make one eligible to take home a favorite game.

Miss Fairchild was the first to see her plan put into effect and was highly pleased with manner in which it took. Several mothers of children who have not been heeding the curfew hour were early arrivals at the library and at once gave it their unstinted approval.

Miss Fairchild is a member of the Thursday club, composed of some of Saint Paul's best known women, and the other club members have joined her in her unique method of saving young Americans, since it is conceded by all great charity workers that roaming the streets has been the ruin of many children. The Thursday club furnishes the attendant who hands out the game to the children, the members intending to take turns in being present on Saturdays to do the work.

Many of the games are educational, some are for fun purely. Others are games of chance. Children can sprawl about on the floor and elicit in jack straws or build maps of the country from divided card board pictures. Historical or literary games that teach the children are there in quantities.

The one fear of those who have started the service that parts would soon be lost by the children and the games be destroyed for that reason has been instrumental in adding one of the unique features of the service. Each game is enclosed in a denim cover with a snap to hold all the contents securely within. Women of the Thursday club worked several days to sew the bags and make them strong and serviceable. One of the large department stores of St. Paul, the Emporium, has promised to the club all broken sets of games that pass through their hands so that lost pieces may be replenished from this supply. Other merchants have given games and money to start the experiment.

STUDENTS WILL HOLD MEETING AT GRANVILLE

Number of Addresses Enlarging Governor Harmon Will Be Made—Everybody Invited.

Granville, Nov. 4.—The first meeting of the Students' Democratic Club will be held in Sherwin Hall Monday evening, Nov. 7, at 7:30. The meeting will be in the interest of Governor Harmon, who, as everyone knows, is an alumnus of Denison. There will be several short addresses. Mr. H. L. Deibel will speak on "Harmon as a Lawyer," Mr. C. F. Kemper will have the subject, "Harmon as Governor," and Prof. W. H. Johnson will discuss "Harmon as a Man."

Whether you are a Republican or Democrat, voter or not, Prohibitionist or Socialist, first-year prep. or senior, you are cordially invited to come out Monday evening at 7:30 and hear something about an alumnus of Denison who is making a national reputation.

At the regular meeting of the Forthnightly Club held this week there was a goodly attendance of the members and an excellent program was carried out. In the absence of the president, Mrs. John Owens, the vice president, Mrs. Graham, presided. After the roll call, minutes and critic's report were received. Miss Hoover gave an interesting talk on Lady Macbeth. The third act of Macbeth was read by Mrs. Austin, leader. She gave a short review of the act. The readers of the evening were Mrs. See, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Ackley. After an intermission, Mrs. E. E. Wright gave an interesting paper on "Suffragettes." This led to quite a lengthy discussion, different opinions being held by the ladies. A number of guests were present, among them being Mrs. Leroy E. Viets of Minneapolis, Minn., a charter member of the club, and now on the honorary roll. The club will meet with Mrs. T. H. Nor. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lewis of Toledo, were in the village all week as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Gilpatrick. Thursday they left in a private car over the T. & O. C. for Old Point Comfort, where they will be for some time. Howard has just been discharged from a Toledo hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. While here he was compelled to remain indoors the greater part of the time on account of the weakened condition he was in.

The Denisonian contains the following relative to the marriage of Miss Pearl Ferguson: "Much to the surprise of her many friends, an announcement of her marriage has been received from Miss Pearl C. Ferguson of this place. She was formerly assistant in voice in the Shepherdson Conservatory and a student in the art department. Miss Ferguson was married Oct. 18, at St. Ignace, Mich. The happy groom is Mr. David Beveridge of St. Ignace. The marriage ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church of that city."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones of Toledo, have been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gilpatrick, on the hill, during the past week. Mr. Jones is an alumnus of the class of 1900. They are on their way to Old Point Comfort.

A large number of Granville people went over to Columbus Thursday night and attended the Melba concert. A special car was run to Columbus and brought the party back after the entertainment. The chorus has effected an organization by the election of Prof. Stickney as president; Miss Mary McKibben, vice president; Miss Marion Rose, secretary; and H. V. Sweet, treasurer and librarian. The name the society adopted is the Engwerson Choral Society, in honor of Professor Engwerson, who was largely instrumental in giving the first impetus to choral singing in Granville. The artists chosen for the solo parts of the Messiah, to be sung Dec. 14, are: Miss Edith Cox, soprano; Mrs. Jane Lang Graninger, contralto; Mr. Joseph Schenke, tenor, and Mr. Edward Bonhoe, bass.

Miss Bettie Jones, daughter of Mr. T. A. Jones, who was brought home from Sisserville, W. Va., where she had been teaching, on account of a severe illness contracted there, is reported as being considerably improved at this writing.

How many of the present generation in Granville have ever heard the sound of a cowbell? These once useful articles are seldom used nowadays in the vicinity of Granville, as they are not needed. In the earlier days, when cows roamed at will through the forest or along country roads, they were badly needed, for it was chiefly by their aid that the herd was located, when grazing amidst the thick underbrush or in distant ravines.

Miss Florence Hannahs, who is attending school here, spent a few days at her home in Concord, O.

Mrs. Lewis McCann has been spending some days with her husband at their country home at Perryton.

Samuel Shaffer of Newark, spent several days this week in Granville. Miss Clarissa Arndt of Hanover, spent Saturday and Sunday with Granville friends.

Comparatively few of the many farmers who visit Granville weekly permit their horses to stand tied on the streets. If the owners are in the city for more than an hour, they invariably put up their animals in the stable.

The last home football game of the season will be played with Wittenberg on Beaver Field Saturday, Nov. 5. Every student of the college should attend this game.

One of the most enjoyable events in the social line that has been held in Granville during the past week, was the surprise that was perpetrated on Comrade Thomas J. Evans at his home on South Main street. The Wednesday evening. The affair was planned by Mr. Evans' two daughters, Misses Sarah and Clara, and the result was that at an early hour in the evening about 25 of the old soldier comrades of Mr. Evans called at his home. At first Mr. Evans was unable to comprehend the meaning of the assault, but he soon realized the nature of the visit, and then devoted himself most assiduously to the task of making things pleasant for the party. At six o'clock a three-course dinner was served, to which all did ample justice. During the evening, Dr. C. J. Baldwin, pastor of the Baptist church, on behalf of the old comrades, presented Mr. Evans with a leather covered rocking chair. Mr. Evans was equal to the occasion and thanked the donors in a few well chosen words. He was also the recipient of a number of other gifts. The occasion was a most happy one and will long be remembered by those who were present.

Granville friends are in receipt of the following announcement cards:

A meeting of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Society is being held in the church parlors this afternoon. Miss Parsons is in the program to speak on "The Gospel in Italy," and Mrs. Goodell on "State Missions." Miss Alleretta Chrysler left Friday for Columbus, and will remain there until the wedding of her cousin, Miss Grace Green, which takes place on Tuesday evening of next week.

THE ORPHEUM.

You have four more chances to see the "Ten Dark Knights," that great musical feature, direct from the Keith & Proctor circuit, who are repeating their big hit at the popular Arcade playhouse this week. Do not fail to see them, and if you have failed to secure seats, try again. They will more than please you. For the first time in the history of the Orpheum, the S.R.O. sign has been of no use, as there hasn't even been standing room or seats enough to accommodate the patrons of this popular little theatre. There are three other high class acts on the bill—Aubrey E. Rich, the dainty little comedienne; Von Hoff, mimic, and Jack Wolff, foot equilibrist. The Orpheumscope has a pretty little love story film.

Dyspepsia is our national ailment. Burdock Blood Bitters is the national cure for it. It strengthens stomach membranes, promotes flow of digestive juices, purifies the blood, builds you up.
